Community Member Receives Award of Merit for Dedication to Excellence

McMinnville, Tennessee – November, 2009 – Sue Anderson, supervisor of operations for Jarden Consumer Solutions' (JCS), McMinnville Plant, was awarded Jarden Corporation's 2009 Chairman's Award of Merit. The Chairman's Award of Merit is an award program designed to recognize and show an appreciation for employees who continually demonstrate excellence in their work and who embody and reflect Jarden's core values, while adding significant value to the company. Sue was recognized for her contributions to JCS at an awards event in New York City, along with four other recipients from other Jarden Corporation divisions. After the review process, 43 finalists emerged, with five receiving the honor, including Sue.

"Sue is an individual who wholeheartedly exemplifies the core values of the company," said Sheri Denning, manager, human resources—JCS McMinnville Plant. "She is more than qualified and deserving of this award."

Sue began her career with JCS 45 years ago and always has been an important contributor. Not only does she manage a team of approximately 100 people, she is also an active participant in the community. Sue has organized many benefits for coworkers in financial need, is a member of numerous committees within the community, and is currently serving as the Mayor of Morrison.

Jarden Consumer Solutions congratulates Sue—keep up the good work!
